CONSECRATION TO MARY, OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

By Msgr. Fred Kriekenbeek, MLCC

O Mary, the Father sent His Spirit to overshadow and empower You, His Son as your Child to depend on You. I too give my whole self to You. I consecrate to You, O Mother and Queen, my body with all its senses, my soul with all its faculties, my heart with all its affections for you to give to Jesus and mould to His likeness. Take all that I am, that I have, that I do, and give these to the Holy Spirit to form Jesus in me.

At the foot of the cross, He entrusted me to you: take and unite me to Jesus crucified, humbly obedient to the FATHER, fully yielded to the Spirit in love. May He be the Lord of my life and of men and in His Spirit, the praise and the glory of the Father. AMEN.

Bridgewater-Brighton Catholic Parish 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time -Year A 04 October 2020

FIRST READING: (Is 5:1-7)

Israel is the vineyard of the Lord.

RES. PSALM:

THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD IS THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.

SECOND READING: (Phil 4:6-9)

God's peace will reign in your heart and mind.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: (Mt 21:33-43)

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son," he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir.
Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures: It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see? 'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

REFLECTION

FR. LEO

"Indeed, each of us is given a chance to work in the vineyard of the Lord. Let's not abuse His goodness to us. Let's always be humble in working with the Lord (in whatever task/vocation we're called to) so that we may be rewarded with manifold blessings...."

Wretched Tenants: in Jesus' time, many vineyard owners were rich absentee landlords. They had property in Israel but lived in Rome and other big cities. Tenant farmers instead could hardly make ends meet: they paid rent, taxes, and social dues. Naturally, they were frustrated, desperate, and driven to violence. The parable is directed to Jesus' opponents. The "antagonist" is no longer the landlord, but the violent and greedy tenants who do not give God his due. The parable recalls the Isaiah's 'Song of the Vineyard' (Is 5:1-7). But while, in Isaiah, the problem lay in Israel itself, in Jesus' parable it now lies with the leadership of the people. The chief priest and the Pharisees realize that Jesus is directing the parable at them, warning them that patronage will be taken from them and given to those able to produce fruits. The parable may as well be directed at Matthew's own community. Stewardship has been transferred to the leaders of the Judeo-Christian community. But they, too, are to take care that they produce proper fruit, otherwise it will be taken away from them and given to others worthier. Indeed, each of us is given a chance to work in the vineyard of the Lord. Let's not abuse His goodness to us. Let's always be humble in working with the Lord (in whatever task/vocation we're called to) so that we may be rewarded with manifold blessings. Blessed Sunday!
